GUBERNATORIAL CANDIDATES WILL TAKE SAME STAGE TO ADDRESS BANKERS

ASHEVILLE – Banking executives and their management teams will have the opportunity to hear from Lieutenant Governor Walter Dalton and former Charlotte Mayor Pat McCrory at the North Carolina Bankers Association's Management Team Conference October 21-23 at The Grove Park Inn in Asheville. Speaking to the audience of bankers and financial industry leaders just two weeks before the election, McCrory and Dalton will make their case as to why they should lead this great state as Governor. Walter Dalton will speak at 11 a.m. followed by Pat McCrory at 11:30 a.m.

Among the other esteemed speakers are Tom Dujenski, Regional Director, FDIC; Jennifer Burns, Senior Vice President of the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond; Ray Grace, N.C. Commissioner of Banks; Toney Bland, Deputy Controller of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency; Joe Smith, Monitor, The Office of Mortgage Settlement Oversight; and Mark Beasley, Deloitte Professor of Enterprise Risk Management and Director, ERM Initiative, Poole College of Management, N.C. State University.

The North Carolina Bankers Association brings together all categories of banking institutions that best represent the interests of our rapidly changing state. The state's banks have provided support to their communities since 1864. Look for a current listing at www.ncba.com.
