

ICBA Securities provides community bankers with quality investment products, services and education at competitive prices. Included are asset/liability and liquidity assistance, bond accounting and safekeeping, transaction analysis, Performance Profiles, and research assistance. ICBA Securities also has a mandated set of policies for the protection of the banker: rigorous sales rep requirements, a suitable security list, and a pricing policy that is determined by its Board of Directors, comprised of community bankers.