

TransFirst provides electronic credit and debit card processing for over 965 community banks in all 50 states. Non-liability merchant programs are available with generous revenue sharing and fee income opportunity. A comprehensive marketing strategy is available to further grow the community bank's market share, deposits and commercial relationships.