December 25, 2008

Dear Chief Executive Officer and Affiliate Members,

Our Board has decided not to take our Convention to the St. Regis at Dana Point, California. Instead, we will be going to the Carolina Inn in Chapel Hill, June 14-15.

Considering all that is swirling around us, our leadership feels it more prudent to stay at home, stay conservative, and keep things on a high, educational plane for Convention 2009. Accordingly, we will shrink the time of our Convention at the Carolina Inn in Chapel Hill. We will meet all day Sunday, June 14, adjourning with a banquet style luncheon at noon on Monday to be followed by our annual Camp Challenge Golf and Tennis Tournaments.

Bring your Spouse! Due to our new format we have altered some of the fees for this year's conference. We are offering complimentary registration for all spouses!

Register and Reserve your Rooms Now: We have a preferred rate at the Carolina Inn at $159.00 per night. There is also the Courtyard Marriott up the road where we have a rate at $119.00 per night. Please see our hotel guide for more information and tell your choice for accommodations that you are part of the NCBA Convention.

Camp Challenge Golf and Tennis Tournaments: Our Camp Challenge Golf Tournament is scheduled for Monday afternoon at 2:00 pm at Finley Golf Course. The Camp Challenge Tennis Tournament will be at 2:00 also. Please see the attached tournament registration form for more information.

Dining: Chapel Hill is home to one of Gourmet Magazines "50 Best Restaurants in America," Lantern. Bonne Soiree is known for its romantic ambiance and has been ranked at the very top of N&O food writer Greg Cox's Top 25 restaurants in the Triangle. Il Palio and Carolina Crossroads have both been awarded the AAA Four Diamond rating. Please refer to the attached dining guide for more information.

Dress: Dress for all NCBA events during the day is business casual attire. The cocktail reception on Sunday, June 14 is cocktail attire. Many restaurants throughout the Triangle require dress shirts and slacks for men and dresses or skirts for ladies. Dress for the Monday luncheon is business casual.

Customized Board Meeting: Combine your June board meeting or strategic planning retreat with our 113th Annual Convention. Your NCBA will provide a meeting room at no cost, assist with hotel arrangements and identify speakers or facilitators. Please let Blair Wicker (blair@ncbankers.org) know if you would like for us to organize this for you.

It will be the 113th time in the history of the NCBA since we first met on matters of mutual interest in behalf of banking in our state. It likely will be our most important time together, ever! If you have any questions about the enclosed packet of information, please feel free to contact me at 800/662-7044 or blair@ncbankers.org.

We look forward to seeing you in June in Chapel Hill!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Blair". The letters are cursive and somewhat stylized, with the "B" being particularly large and the "W" having a long, sweeping tail.

Assistant Vice President/Meetings Director
